UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE LESLEY WELLS

Plaintiff Tammy Kelly seeks review of the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security, denying her claim for social security disability benefits. This case was referred to United States Magistrate Judge Kathleen B. Burke for a Report and Recommendation ("R&R") pursuant to Local Civil Rule 72.2(b). In an R&R dated 3 January 2013, Magistrate Judge Burke concluded that the plaintiff's challenge to the Commissioner's decision is without merit. She recommended that the Commissioner's decision be affirmed.

The magistrate judge advised that any objections to the R&R were due within "fourteen (14) days after the party objecting has been served with a copy of [the] Report and Recommendation." She indicated that "[f]ailure to file objections within the specified time waives the right to appeal the District Court's order." No objections have been filed.

The Court has reviewed Magistrate Judge Burke's R&R. Finding it well-reasoned and without error, the Court adopts it in its entirety. The decision of the Commissioner is therefore affirmed.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
